RELIEF FOR THE SHREVEPORT AND MEM-PHIS SUFFERERS. - Contributions for the relief of the sufferers by the yellow fever in the stricken cities of Shreveport and Memphis continue to come in, and Col. Arthur Herbert, of the firm of Burke & Herbert, will in a day or two remit the amount. Those of our citizens, who can afford it, will be doing a most charitable act in aiding to relieve the sufferings of these unfortunate people. Alexandria has never been backward in her deeds of charity, and from the contributions so far received she will maintain, in this instance, her enviable character. Contributions can be sent or left at

RELIGIOUS SERVICES YESTERDAY.-The weather yesterday was clear and bright, and the temperature agreeable, and large congregation were present at nearly all the churches. Rev. Mr. Waller preached in the 1st Presbyterian Church in the morning-there was no evening service there. Rev. Messers. Bullock, of the 2d Presbyterian Church, and Mr. Busey, of the M. E. Church, South, exchanged pul-pits in the morning, Rev. Mr. Drinkhouse occupied the pulpit of the M. P. Church, and Rev. Mr. Flickinstien preached in the German Lutheran Church in the morning, there being no service there in the afternoon. The pulpits of all the other churches and of those mentioned above except at the hours specified, were filled by the resident clergy. The following is a report of the work done during the day by the Yoong Men's Christian Association :

"The St. Asaph Street Sunday School opened with forty-eight scholars and a full band of teachers. The session was marked by an unstudies and correctness of deportment, and was closed with an address by Mr. Hawkins.

"The King and West Streets Sabbath School opened with ninety scholars, and a full corps of teachers. The session was again marked by interest on the part of the scholars, and efficient labor on the part of the teachers.

"The Alms House Meeting was once more attended very largely, a full committee, and a number of visiting brethren being present. The members report another meeting full of warmth, zeal and gratification, and their hearts thoroughly stirred up in seeing "the work of the Lord prospering in their hands.'

"The Jail services were held by a full committee with the usual interest among the few inmates now present there. "The four o'clock prayer meeting in the 2d Presbyterian Church had a good attendance, especially of the youth of both sexes; a goodly number of the members of the Association were present, and the exercises were of exceeding interest, with the usual prayers for Zion and other objects of this means of grace. There was offered special prayer for the stay of the pestilence in Shreveport and Memphis, and the blessing of Almighty God upon the sick and poverty stricken in those cities." This meeting will be held next Sunday in the M. E. Church, South.

This fact should give it confidence, and secure the sale of a sufficient amount of its securities to keep in motion its construction

COMMERCIAL EXCHANGE, -Business at the Commercial Exchange continues dull, though evidences of increased activity are beginning to be apparent, and would doubless be more so were it not that the receipts of grain, which were shut off during the late monetary "crash," are now kept back, in consequence of seeding, in which the farmers are busily engaged.

SUICIDE OF AN ALEXANDRIAN.-It will be seen by our telegraphic disratches to-day, that Mr. Edward English, formerly of this city, son of the late James A. English, aged about 20 years, committed suicide at Paterson, N. J., to-day, where he was living, by blowing his brains out. The cause assigned is a love affair. Mr. E. has a number of relatives and friends in this city, who will deeply regret this sad event.

OYSTERS. - The cargoes of oysters that arrived last week had all been sold by Saturday last, and the supplies of some of the dealers had by that time become exhausted. During yesterday and to-day, however, saveral cargoes have arrived, which with those that have reached here by steamboat make the supply qual to the demand.

NEW STEAMER. - The new steamer Arlington, Capt. Doe Grimes, lately built at Occoquan, having had her joiners work nearly completed, and been supplied with her engine in this city, made a trial trip to-day, was found to be in perfect condition, and will, in a short time, commence running regular tri-weekly trips between this city and Occoquan.

SPEAKING TO-MORROW NIGHT. - A dispatch received at this office to-day from Gov. Gilbert C. Walker, says that Col. B. R. Berkeley and himself will arrive here on the W. C., V. M. & G. S. train to morrow evening from Woodaddress the people at Sarepta Hall at night.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

As there was only one member of the chain gang reported as fit for duty this morningand he a small-sized colored boy-Capt. Warring received orders from Superintendent of usual interest on the part of the former in their | Police Clifford to keep his command within doors to-day.

The cries of murder which startled nearly everybody living near the intersection of St. Asaph and Princess streets, last night, proceeded from a house in rear of the jail and were occasioned by the beating of one of the female occupants.

The U.S. Attorney General has reappointed N. W. Burchell, e-q., formerly of this city, but now of Washington, to be a trustee of the Reform School of the District of Columbia. Mr. Burchell's old term had just expired.

The October number of "The Academy Journal," published for the students of St. John's Academy, has been issued. Its contents, as usual, are interesting, and its typo graphical appearance excellent.

The revival services in progress at the M. E. Church will continue all the current week .-They were attended by a crowded congregation last night. Up to this time four penitents have professed conversion.

Two of the crew of the bark "Die Tugen, lying at Smoot's wharf, deserted last night, and though the police have been hunting for them all day, have so far successfully avoided

Some one who had not a proper regard for the integrity of the window panes in the counting room of Mr. J. H. D. Smoot, hurled a rock through a sash there yesterday afternoon, and smashed several of them into "smithereens."

A horse belonging to Mr. W. A. Smoot, and engaged in unloading a vessel lying at that gen tleman's wharf, backed overboard last Saturday afternoon, but was speedily rescued by the stevedores employed there,

Mr. William Stonnell, an old gentleman living on the extreme northwestern boundary of the city, was assaulted and knocked down and hadly hurt, last night, by a young man named Alphonso Arrington. The roof of the machine shop at the Henry street depot accidentally caught fire about half past seven o'clock last Saturday morning, but the flames were spedily extinguished by the operatives there without making any alarm. The delegation of Echo Socials of this city,

Baltimore, last week, have returned and are highly pleased with their trip. Thomas Beach was struck on the head by ex-policeman Matt Latton with a billy, near the brick row, last night, and had his scalp handsome hall over Adams express office.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.]

Meeting and Barbecue in Leesburg. LEESBURG, Oct. 13.-A special train from Alexandria reached here this morning about 10 o'clock, on which were Gen. Kemper and Montgomery Blair, besides a number of others. There is a very large crow1 in the place, and the Court House is jammed with people. At 11 o'clock the meeting was called to oreer by Mat. Harrison, e.q., who introduced Gen. Kemper, who proceeded to deliver a speech that delighted his audience, and was received with great applause and enthusiasm. Gen. K. was followed by Mr. Blair in an able and effective speech.

The Barbacue will be a sumptuous affair, the tables, which are spread in the Court House square, being loaded with substantials and viands of all kinds. There has not been such a meeting here since '44, nor more enthusiasm. The people of old Loudoun are fully aroused, and will give a good account of themselves in November.

Financial Affairs.

General demoralization exists throughout the city. The police force has been greatly reduced, the city railroad has been compelled to reduce the number of trips one fourth, and the number of cars running do not yield the expenses of the drivers. M. E. Saunders, city editor of the Avalanche, is rapidly recovering. The mortuary report for 24 hours ending Satunday evening, shows that there were 47 deaths every family. A slight cough, if unchecked, is from yellow fever and 10 from other diseases.

From St. Louis.

St. Louis, Oct. 13.-Extensive arrange ments have been made for the reception and entertainment of the delegates to the Irish Catholic Benevolent Association which meets here Wednesday.

The Italian societies yesterday celebrated the anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus. The fair grounds were kept open yesterday and the gave money, amounting to about $1,-500, was appropriated to the Memphis sufferers. A per centage of the receipts at some of the refreshment booths and the sales of several choice articles were devoted to the same purpose. The Merchants' Exchange, the German societies, and all classes of citizens are engaged in raising funds for the plague stricken city.

Tom Allen says he will cover any sum from $100 to $5,000 as soon as it may be put up by Joe Coburn, and that he will fight him balf way between St. Louis and New York or in Canada at from ten weeks' to three months'

The Foreign Delegates.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13.-The foreign delegates to the Evangelical Conference will arrive in this city this afternoon and will be formally received in Independence Hall. From thence they will be conveyed to the principal points of interest about the city and partake of a formal entertainment at the Continental Hotel, given by the Philadelphia branch. In consequence of President Grant having consented to take part in the reunion of the Army of the Cumberland at Pittsburg, he will be obliged to leave the capital on Wednesday and his reception of the Evangelical delegates will take place tomorrow at Washington, This curtails their stay in this city and consequently the proposed banquet to the delegates at Fairmount Park has been abandoned. In addition to the re ception in Horticultural Hall this evening three neighboring churches will be opened to accommodate the throng anxious to hear the addresses of the delegates.

Remarkable Feat.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.-The Associated Press courier who carried the report of the Modoc execution from Fort Kalmath, to the telegraph station at Jacksonville, Oregon, rode a distance of ninety-two miles in six hours and fifty-five minutes over a mountainous road of more than usual roughness, employing three well selected horses for the journey. The last forty-two uniles he accomplished in exactly two hours, beating his principal competitor by thirty minutes and getting control of the wire which was necessarily occupied in the transmission of the Associated Press report until it was too late to forward any other.

Boston, Oct. 13.-Benjamin Dean declines the Democratic candidacy for Congress in the third district. He says of the convention which nominated him: -"A portion of the convention President Grant by the Loudona Agricultural advocated making no nomination which meant Society, through Col. J. W. Fairfax, to visit abandonment of the field, while a considerable number for some reason favored the nomina tion of the Republican candidate. A conven-Three new locomotives for the C. & O. R. BALTIMORE. Oct. 13 .-- T. Parkin Scott, MADRID, Oct. 13.-The Intrapsigente fleet have been defeated by the National squadron. The fight took place Saturday afternoon near Cartagena and lasted about two hours. The Insurgent vessels were considerably injured and were compelled to return to Cartagena harbor. The government squadron consisted of the Almansa, Viltoria Carmer, and two smaller vessels. Admiral Lobos was in command. The Intransigente fleet numbered four vessels.

Fault Finding Letier.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.-Tardy publication is this morning given letters of Dr. Tozer, late missionary bishop to Zauzibar, addressed to Bishop Potter, of this diocese, and the Dean of Canterbury, finding fault with the latter for participating in the communion service in 'a Presbyterian Church in this city on Sunday last. Dr. Tozer says this conduct of the Dean will be accepted in this country and England as sufficient reason and justification for Episcopalians attending the attractive services of the Catholic Church and may be cited to pronounce the representation that the Episcopal Church is a haven of rest for those tossed by multiplicity of doctrine, a delusion and snare.

The Indians. NEW YORK, Oct. 13 .-- The commissioners appointed March last to negotiate for the removal of the American Indians from Mexican tarritory have arrived in this city and are preparing their report to present to the Secretary of the Interior. The report will also touch upon the general political condition of the Texan border and will probably have some suggestions regarding the various proposed schemes of annexation.

Attempted Suicide.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13 .-- John Crawford. M. D., attempted to commit suicide last night by shooting, at one of the city hotels. The wound is in the neck, back of the left ear, but is not necessarily fatal. It was infleted while laboring under the effects of chloroform. Crawford came originally from Pittsburg and has two or three brothers living in western Pennsylvania.

North Carolina Fair.

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 13.--The fair was formally opened at 12 o'clock by Governor Caldwell. The number of exhibitors is exceedingly large. Trains loaded with articles are arriving on the grounds continuously. The attendance will be fifteen or twenty thousand. Every arrangement has been made to accommodate the press.

Marine Disaster. New York, Oct. 13 .-- The steamship George
